Garth's family relocated to Cardale, PA.

into a gentle giant. He was a lot taller than his school mates not just in stature but also in his mannerisms. He was a loving, friendly, kind young man. He lived out the scripture that says in order to have friends one must show himself friendly. Garth had many school mates that still call him friend. He got along with everyone and he was especially thoughtful, polite, and respectful to the seniors he encountered also.

Garth was a man of many talents and passions. He was a loving husband and a dedicated family man. He enjoyed writing Haikus, photography, nature, music,
